Can you say this?

(kee-taab) (heh-daa)

هذا كتاب.

(a) book this (is)

(al-kee-taab) (oo-ree-do)

the book I want

If you can say this, you can learn to speak Arabic. You will be able to easily order meals, concert tickets, snacks, or anything else you wish. With your best Arabic accent you simply ask (heh-daa) (maa) "ما هذا؟" and, upon learning what it is, you can order it with (heh-daa) (oo-ree-do) "أريد هذا." Sounds easy, doesn't it?

The purpose of this book is to give you an immediate speaking ability in Arabic. Using the acclaimed "10 minutes a day" methodology, you will acquire a large working vocabulary that will suit your needs, and you will acquire it almost automatically. To aid you, this book offers a unique and easy system of pronunciation above each word which walks you through learning Arabic. Just remember, you read Arabic from right to left. Look for the blue arrows (→) as they will help you develop this habit. Remember to read the English phonetics and the English subscripts from left to right as usual!

If you are planning a trip or moving to where Arabic is spoken, you will be leaps ahead of everyone if you take just a few minutes a day to learn the easy key words and phrases that this book offers. Start with Step 1 and don't skip around. Each day work as far as you can comfortably go in those 10 minutes. Don't overdo it. Some days you might want to just review. If you forget a word, you can always look it up in the glossary. Spend your first 10 minutes studying the map on the previous page. And yes, have fun learning your new language.

As you work through the Steps, always use the special features which only the "10 minutes a day" Series offers. This Series includes sticky labels and flash cards, puzzles and quizzes. Plus, when you have completed the book, cut out the menu guide at the back and take it along on your trip.

When you first see words like كتاب and مصر Arabic can appear forbidding. However, Arabic is a logical language once you learn how to decode these letters and you remember to read from right to left. A wide variety of regional Arabic dialects is spoken. Key is that you learn the standard Arabic presented in this book, and at the same time are prepared for variations in pronunciation depending upon where your travels take you.

In these letters, the dots are the only way to differentiate one letter from another.

(q) (f) ق ف	(z) (r) ز ر	(sh) (s) ش س	(n) (b) ن ب	(varies) (') غ ع
(Th) (T) ظ ط	(D) (an) ص ض	(lh/d) (d) ذ د	(ee) (aa/ah) ي ي	(varies) (H) (zh) خ ح ج

Vowels in Arabic look like dashes or symbols above or below the Arabic letters. These vowels make it easier for you to pronounce Arabic. Later when you are more comfortable with the language you will not need them anymore.

Hints, Tips and Guidance:

- Sometimes we will include two sets of words as both are commonly used. It doesn't hurt to learn both!
- You will encounter masculine and feminine words indicated by (♂) and (♀).
- Some Arabic letters do not connect with the following letter. Don't let it surprise you.
- When you see the letter "r" or "L" or "n" in the phonetics, pronounce the letter just as you would if you were spelling out a word in English.
- You will see some English words in parentheses underneath the Arabic. This indicates there isn't a corresponding Arabic word for the English.

◌◌◌ a marker doubling (lengthening) the sound of the letter

ة/ة pronounced "ah" except when linked to the next word and pronounced "t"

◌◌◌ a special ending with the pronunciation "ahn"

(la) ◌◌◌ the combination of ل = ل + ج ◌◌◌

Certain combinations of letters and vowels will create completely different sounds than you might anticipate. Just try to learn the words as you see them and eventually these patterns will emerge.

On the next page you will find a listing of all Arabic letters in Arabic alphabetical order. Many Arabic letters change their appearance depending upon whether they are at the beginning of a word, the middle or the end. Practice, practice, practice and then practice some more!

Carefully designed phonetics appear above each word to help you learn to pronounce the Arabic. Sometimes the phonetics may seem to contradict this pronunciation guide. Don't panic. The easiest and best possible phonetics have been chosen for each individual word. Pronounce the phonetics just as you seen them. Don't over-analyze them. Speak with an Arabic accent and, above all, enjoy yourself.

Key Question Words

When you arrive in an Arabic-speaking country such as ^(al-cor-doon) الأردن ← ^(meess-ur) مصر ← ^(al-ma-greb) المغرب ← or ^(loob-naan) لبنان ← the very first thing you will need to do is ask questions — “Where is the bus stop?”
Jordan Egypt Morocco Lebanon

“Where can I exchange money?” “Where ^(eye-na) (أَيْنَ) ← is the lavatory?” “^(eye-na) (أَيْنَ) ← is a restaurant?”
where where

“^(eye-na) (أَيْنَ) ← is a taxi?” “^(eye-na) (أَيْنَ) ← is a good hotel?” “^(eye-na) (أَيْنَ) ← is my luggage?” and the list will go on where where where

and on for the entire length of your visit. In Arabic, there are many question words, but let's focus on these EIGHT KEY QUESTION WORDS. For example, the eight key question words will help you find out exactly what you are ordering in a restaurant before you order it — and not after the surprise (or shock!) arrives. Take a few minutes to study and practice saying the eight key question words listed below. Then cover ^(al-r-ra-be-ya) العربية ← and fill in each of the blanks with the matching Arabic ^(ka-lee-ma) كلمة ←

the Arabic word

_____	WHERE =	^(eye-na) أَيْنَ ←
_____	WHAT =	^(may-daa) ماذا / ما ← ^(maa)
_____ مَنْ مَنْ مَنْ مَنْ مَنْ	WHO =	^(men) مَنْ ←
_____	WHEN =	^(meh-ta) مَتَى ←

_____	WHY =	^(lee-may-daa) لِمَاذَا ←
_____	HOW MANY =	^(kem) كَمْ ←
_____	HOW MUCH (price) =	^(be-kem) بِكَمْ ←

Now test yourself to see if you really can keep these ^(ka-lee-maat)كلمات straight in your mind. Draw lines between ^(al-r-ra-be-ya)العربية and the English equivalents below.

Arabic alphabet confuse you. Just work through each word, letter by letter. Listed below are three related words built around three core letters called the root. Letters are added around the root, but the common core remains. Can you find the root in each of these words? Be sure to say each (ka-lee-ma) كَلِمَة ← aloud (wa) وَ then write out (al-r-ra-be-ya) العَرَبِيَّة ← in the blank to the left.

_____	to study..... (da-ra-sa) دَرَسَ ← <input type="checkbox"/>
_____	school..... (ma-dra-sa) مَدْرَسَة <input type="checkbox"/>
_____	lesson..... (dars) دَرْس <input type="checkbox"/>

Additional fun (ka-lee-maat) كَلِمَات ← like these will appear at the bottom of the following pages in a yellow color band. They are easy to learn because they are related to each other—enjoy them!

Arabic does not have words for "a" or "an," which makes things easier for you. The letters "ال" ^(al) in front of an Arabic word (on the right) means "the." If you do not see "ال" ^(al) in front of an Arabic word, "a" or "an" is assumed. Here are some examples.

Don't be surprised – "ال" is pronounced both as "al" and "ah." Just remember the core of (al-ka-lee-ma) الكلمة ^{the word} doesn't change, so you should always be able to recognize it. You will be understood whether you say بَنْك ^{(bahnk) bank} or الْبَنْك ^{(al-bahnk) the bank}. Learn to look and listen for the core of the word, and remember to read from right to left — the blue arrows (←) are there to help you.

In Step 2 you were introduced to the Eight Key

Question Words. These eight words are the basics, the most essential building blocks for learning Arabic.

Throughout this book you will come across keys asking you to fill in the missing question كلمة ^{(ka-lee-ma) word}. Use this opportunity not only to fill in the blank on that key, but to review all your question كلمات ^{(ka-lee-maat) words}. Play with the new sounds, speak slowly و ^{(wa) and} have fun.

Look Around You

Before you proceed ^(mar) مع this Step, situate yourself comfortably in your living room. Now look around you. STICKY LABELS

This book has over 150 special sticky labels for you to use as you learn new words. When you are introduced to one of these words, remove the corresponding label from these pages. Be sure to use each of these unique self-adhesive labels by adhering them to a picture, window, lamp, or whatever object they refer to. And yes, they are removable! The sticky labels make learning to speak Arabic much more fun and a lot easier than you ever expected. For example, when you look in the mirror and see the label, say

Don't just say it once, say it again and again. And once you label the refrigerator, you should never again open that door without saying

By using the sticky labels, you not only learn new words, but friends and family learn along with you! The sooner you start the sooner you can use these labels at home or work.

You have learned the days of the week, so now it is time to learn الشُّهُور (ah-shoo-hoor) of the year and all the different kinds of الجَوَّ (al-zhao) weather. In Arabic there are two names for each month. One set of names sounds very similar to English and is given below. You will find the second set in the yellow color blocks at the bottom of these pages. Try to learn them both.

When someone asks, "كَيْفَ الْجَوُّ الْيَوْمَ؟" (al-yohm) (al-zhao) (kay-fa) you have a variety of answers. Practice all the possible answers to this question on the next صَفْحَة (ssahf-Ha). Practice using both sets of names so that you master both.

PLUS . . .

This book includes a number of other innovative features unique to the "10 minutes a day®" Series. At the back of this book, you will find twelve pages of flash cards. Cut them out and flip through them at least once a day.

On pages 116, 117 and 118 you will find a beverage guide and a menu guide. Don't wait until your trip to use them. Clip out the menu guide and use it tonight at the dinner table. Take them both with you the next time you dine at your favorite Middle Eastern or North African restaurant.

By using the special features in this book, you will be speaking Arabic before you know it.

(ah-ta-ke-l-la-moo)	أَتَكَلَّمُ	I speak	(ahf-ha-moo)	أَفْهَمُ	I understand
(ahsh-ra-boo)	أَشْرَبُ	I drink	(ee-la) (ahd-ha-boo)	أَذْهَبُ إِلَى	I go to
(ah-ta-rahl-la-moo)	أَتَعَلَّمُ	I learn	(ee-la) (ah-teh-zhoo)	أَحْتَاجُ إِلَى	I need

In Arabic, the subject – I, we, you – is contained in the verb as you will see in the following patterns. Associate أ with the "I" form and ن with the "we" form. Study the following patterns carefully then write out your new verbs in the spaces provided.

(nahf-ha-moo)	نَفْهَمُ	we understand	(ahf-ha-moo)	أَفْهَمُ	I understand
(ee-la) (nahd-ha-boo)	نَذْهَبُ إِلَى	we go to	(ee-la) (ahd-ha-boo)	أَذْهَبُ إِلَى	I go to

(na-ta-rahl-la-moo)	نَتَعَلَّمُ	we learn	(ah-ta-rahl-la-moo)	أَتَعَلَّمُ	I learn

Did you hear the slight difference in pronunciation with these two patterns? Yes! "na" for "we" and "ah" for "I."

_____	بَدَأَ	to begin (beh-da-aa).....
_____	بَدَأْتُ	primitive (be-dair-ee).....
_____	بَدَايَةُ	beginning (be-dair-ya).....

Next – the patterns for “you” (أنت) and “you” (أنت).

Note: • Both patterns start with “ت” (ت pronounced “ta” or تُ pronounced “too”)

- “You” (أنت) ends with “ين” which is pronounced “ee-na.”

The patterns for “he” and “she” are easy.

Note: • The pattern for “she” is identical to the “you” (أنت) form so you can practice these together.

- The “he” pattern starts with “ي” (ي pronounced “ya” or يُ pronounced “yoo”)

Now for ^(ahn-toom) أَنْتُمْ ^(hoom) هُمْ. They are similar. Both end in the sound "oo-na." Otherwise the "you all" pattern begins with ت and the "they" pattern with ي. That's it.

Initially you won't use the ^(ahn-toom) أَنْتُمْ form a lot so we don't focus on it. Just remember to speak slowly و clearly و you will be understood. Arabic speakers will be delighted you have taken the time to learn their language. Here are six more verbs.

What follows are approximate conversions, so when you order something by liters, kilograms or grams you will have an idea of what to expect and not find yourself being handed one piece of candy when you thought you ordered an entire bag.

To Convert		Do the Math
liters (l) to gallons,	multiply by 0.26	4 liters x 0.26	= 1.04 gallons
gallons to liters,	multiply by 3.79	10 gal. x 3.79	= 37.9 liters
kilograms (kg) to pounds,	multiply by 2.2	2 kilograms x 2.2	= 4.4 pounds
pounds to kilos,	multiply by 0.46	10 pounds x 0.46	= 4.6 kg grams (g) to ounces,	multiply by 0.035	100 grams x 0.035	= 3.5 oz.
ounces to grams,	multiply by 28.35	10 oz. x 28.35	= 283.5 g.
meters (m) to feet,	multiply by 3.28	2 meters x 3.28	= 6.56 feet
feet to meters,	multiply by 0.3	6 feet x 0.3	= 1.8 meters

For fun, take your weight in pounds and convert it into kilograms. It sounds better that way, doesn't it? How many kilometers is it from your home to school, to work, to the post office?

The Simple Versions
one liter	=	approximately one US quart
four liters	=	approximately one US gallon
one kilo	=	approximately 2.2 pounds
100 grams	=	approximately 3.5 ounces
500 grams	=	slightly more than one pound
one meter	=	slightly more than three feet

هنا some new verbs. You can translate يَجِبُ أَنْ here simply as "I must." The second verb in the sentence needs to follow your pattern as you'll see in the examples below.

(ah-qop-loo) أقول ← I say	(ahn) (yeh-zhee-boo) يَجِبُ أَنْ ← it must be / I must
(ahb-qa) أبقى ← I stay	(ahn) (ahs-ta-Tee-roo) أستطيع أَنْ ← I can / am able to

The word "أَنْ" functions as a connector. You can translate it as "to" or "that" or sometimes a translation isn't even necessary.

Now that you've finished...

Congratulations

You've done it!

You've completed all the Steps, stuck your labels, flashed your cards and cut out your menu guide. Do you realize how far you've come and how much you've learned?

You can now confidently

- ask questions,
- understand directions,
- make reservations,
- order food and
- shop anywhere.

And you can do it all in a foreign language! You can now go anywhere — from a large cosmopolitan restaurant to a small, out-of-the-way village where no one speaks English. Your experiences will be much more enjoyable and worry-free now that you speak the language.

Yes, learning a foreign language can be fun.
